Telephone for These Silk Gloves

1,000 Pair Specially Priced

Every pair new and fine 1913 Gloves. 16 Button and 12 Button

Famous KAYSER Make

Plain Gloves and Embroidered ones. EVERY PAIR DOUBLE FINGER TIPPED.

50c, 75c and $1.50 Regularly 75c to $2.00

STARTS TO-DAY Challenge Millinery

Cleveland Perkins, was married to Captain Robert Wallach, United States Army. The Rev. Roland Cotton Smith performed the ceremony in the present pany of relatives and friends. The church was exquisitely decorated with great bunches of white peoples and present bunches of white peoples and present. church was exquisitely decorated with and all members are urged to be great bunches of white peonies and American Beauty roses, palms and smilax. Clusters of the flowers were tied to standards marking the pews, and others were tied from the balcony and hung among the smilax and asparagus vines.

Invitations Out.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. William Wharton Archer for the marriage of their niece, Miss Minnie Houston Archer, to Folk Emil Seilman, the ceremony to take silves.

Dunlop Flour IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND

the Dunlop Mills Richmond Va.

BIRTHDAY RINGS,

BRACELETS, CAMEO BROOCHES.

Smith & Webster

805 East Main.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges

PETTIT & CO.'S?

Vashington Wedding.

Hichmond society is much interested at the following from the Washington lost of yesterday:

An interesting wedding was solmized in St. John's Church Thursday at noon, when Miss Feroline Persing at noon, when Miss Feroline Persing daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. The bride's sister, Miss Ruth Perkins, were an exquisite gown of pale blue chiffon and lace, with a white lace hat trimmed with pale blue ribbon.

and others were tied from the balcony and hung among the smilax and asparagus vines.

The full choir of St. John's sang before and during the ceremony, the boys preceding the wedding party to the chance!

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and looked lovely in a gown of white satin made with a long train and 'ery much draped, with a bodice of rare lace, which had been in the family for generations.

The lace also formed a trimming on the skirt, and was caught with orange blossoms.

She wore a tulle vell fastened to her colffure by a bandeau of orange blossoms.

She wore a tulle vell fastened to her colffure by a bandeau of orange blossoms.

There were two bridesmalds, Miss Amylita Talbot and Miss Katherine Jennings. They wore charming gowns of pale pink chiffon and lace, with large leghorn hats trimmed with pale blue ribbon, lace and a single pink rose.

The last auction bridge tournament the card tables. The highest scores were made by Miss Elizabeth Richards and Or. John Nelson, Jr. Card Tournament.

The last auction bridge tournament

Card Tournament.

The last auction bridge tournament of the season was played at the Woman's Club on Thursday evening and the highest score was made by Mrs. Bland Spottswood Smith. Seventeen tables were engaged and supper was served at the conclusion of the game. These tournaments that take place each month at the club keys become These tournaments that take place very interesting features of the social life of each season, and each tourna-ment is largely attended.

Leaves for Oklahoma.

Mrs. Tucker W. Williamson, who has been the guest for several days of Mrs. L. M. Bowman, Mrs. Emma Quarles and Fred Quarles, in Albe-marle, left for her home in Oklahoma City yesterday morning.

Mrs. Williamson visited Charlottes-ville on her return trip from Washington, where she was a delegate to the recent congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution. While here she visited "Castle Hill,"

"Castalia, "Music Hall" and "Lego," all of which estates were formerly in the possession of her ancestors, among whom she numbers the prominent Lewis, Meriwether and Walker fam-

In and Out of Town. Mrs. Landon R. Mason has returned to Richmond, after spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Taylor Burke, in Alexandria.

Miss Langly, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles G. Bosher, here, left yesterday for Norfolk.

Miss Ruth Topping, of New York, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Samuel A. Anderson, on West Grace Street.

Miss Ellen Greene, of Staunton, is risiting Mrs. Everard B. Meade here, after spending some time in Norfolk. Mr. and Mrs. Joel Watkins have returned to their home in Appomattox, after spending a week in this city. Mrs. W. B. Jones, of Stafford County.

Miss Margaret MacDonald has returned to her home in Appomattox, after several weeks' treatment at the John-ston-Willis Hospital here.

Mrs. Thomas C. Johnson, of this city, has gone to Hampton, where she is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Mason. Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Cochran and their small son have returned to Staunton, after visiting Mrs. Hunter McGuire Mrs. James Turner Christian will leave on Monday to visit Miss Alice Murray at "The Plains," in Fauquier

Mrs. Charles Friend, of Hampton, is spending some time in this city as the guest of friends.

Miss Mary Burnett, of Staunton, is he guest of her sister, Mrs. N. T. Cooke, Branch I. Johnson has returned to Norfolk, after spending a short time in Richmond this week.

Miss Goldie Oppleman, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. W. T. Douglass at her home in Williamsburg.

Mallory—Hardwicke.

Cheraw, S. C., May 15.—A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the Rev. John K. Goode, in Cheraw, wedding took place at the residence of the Rev. John K. Goode, in Cheraw, S. C., on Monday, the Rev. Mr. Goode officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Laura Hardwicke, daughter of W. L. Hardwicke, of Richmond, and O. W. Mallory, of Scottsville. After a spread, the happy couple departed upon a honeymoon trip. They will make their home in Scottsville.

RECEIVER NAMED

Clean-Up Sale

Ladies' Shapes, Values Up to $3..98c
Trimmed Hats, Values Up to $10, $3.98
All Children's Hats at One-Half.
Sce window display.

Sce window display.

RECEIVER NAMED
Pure Food Grocer Leases Town and Mails Keyn Back.
Thomas B. Shead vas appointed receiver of the Pure Food Corporation by Judge Moncure in the Chancery Court vesterday. He gave bond yesterday. He gave bond yeste guests at the Willard home for the week-end.

A number of pretty dinners will take place at the Country Club of Virginia this evening. The tables will be arranged with pink honeysuckle and rose-shaded candies, and there will be informal dancing in the main hall of the club following dinner.

Mrs. Patrick Hamilton has returned to Petersburg.

Mrs. Patrick Hamilton has returned to her home in Petersburg, after a short visit to this city. Mrs. Hamilton was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Willach left Washington on a wed-ding trip before going to Fort Ethan Alien, Vt., where Captain Wallach is stationed. Mrs. Wallach traveled in a smart suit of dark blue silk, with liam Hodges Mann, in the Executive Mansion, during her stay here.

Washington Wedding.

Richmond society is much interested in the following from the Washington Post of yesterday:

An interesting wedding was solamized in St. John's Church Thursday at noon, when Miss Feroline Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Cleveland Perkins, was married to Cap.

Chandler Hale, Reynolds Hitt, Clarence Morgan and Lieutenant E. M. Whitting, The Morgan was a the church, there was a breakfast at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Present Freight Taring on Line.

The farmers long fight to obtain from the railroads uniform freight rates on lime to be used for agricultural purposes was won yesterday. Wallach left Washington on a wed-ding trip before going to Fort Ethan Alien, Vt., where Captain Wallach is smart suit of dark blue silk, with touches of cerise, and she wore a hat of blue, with cerise.

A number of very handsome costumes were worn at the wedding. Mrs. Perkins, in commission tending first to obtain from the railroads uniform freight farmers long fight to obtain from the railroads uniform freight farmers long fight to obtain from the railroads uniform freight farmers long fight to obtain from the capture of Mrs. Perkins, in Connecticut Avenue was a the church, there was a the Aver's Pills. Sold for 80 years.

Use Pratt's Astraal Oil for

N. Klein & Son., Inc 3 East Broad.

Ladies' Tan Rubber Sole

Oxfords, $2.25.

ALBERT STEIN Corner 5th and Broad

Rountree-Sutherland-

Cherry Corporation

Specials to-day in Tailored and Lingerie Waists.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

The House of Fashion Bernard Frances & Co. Broad and Fifth Sts.

See Our 1913 Patterns of GO-CARTS end CARRIAGES.

Kothert & Fourth and Broad.

The Latest in Ice Cream and Cakes from

Shepherd's New Factory 2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148

Holeproof Hosiery for Men Six pair for $1.50; guaran-

Come to Our Men's

Visit this particular spot if you're anxious to get the most for the least. The difference between our prices and those at other places makes it all the more important why your buying should be done here. This handy Men's Section is just a step inside the door, recollect, and men to wait on men.

Section To-Day

$2.50 Slik Shirts, new crepe stripe effect, $1.50.

50c finest quality Balbriggan Underwear, 89c.

$1.35 and $1.50 White and Fancy Madras Pajamas, with silk frogs, 98c.

Cambric Night Robes, full cut, plain or trimmed, low

Check Muslin Underwear, as good as some sold at 50c. 25c.

5c and $1.00 Percale Shirts, full cut and fast colors, 59c.

50c Pepperel Jeans Drawers, with knitted insertion in leg,

12 1-2c and 15c White and Fancy Madras Wash Ties, 10c

BULK OF FORTUNE FOR LADY SACKVILLE

Fight on Will of Sir John Murray Scott, Who Disinherits His Brothers and Sisters.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. would seem as if, after all, Lady toria Sackville West, when her father was English envoy to the United States, will receive the bulk of the property of the late Sir John Murray Scott, amounting to considerably over $5,000,000, thus disinheriting his $5,000,000, thus disinheriting his brothers and sisters. They endeavor-ed to upset the will in her favor, on the ground that they had found among Sir John's papers an unsigned draft, in the late baronet's handwrit-ing, of a codicil revoking the bequest, and limiting her benefit under his will to a mere life interest in a sum $100,000, which, at her death, was at her death, was to go to her daughter. No evidence could be found that this codicil had ever been signed or legally executed, and it was impossible to discover any trace of a completed copy. The two brothers and sisters of Sir John, who was unmarried, insisted that the codicil had been duly executed, that it had merely been mislaid or lost, and that they had every reason to know that in the two or three closing years of his life, the testator's affection for Lady Sackville had undergone a complete change, the codicihis regard for her. They at once pro-ceeded to offer a reward of $59,000 for this missing codicil, but hitherto without avail. The other day, in an effort to boister up their case, they brought into court Jesse Short, who, for the last thirteer years of Sir John Scott's life had beer his confidential valet, in order that he But his evidence helped Lad; while he was able to show that Sir his dressing-case a sealed envelope marked "confidential," and which he tary document, he declared that it had they had shown great disappointment, on the ground that it was not the document that they wanted.

He also, under cross-examin crought to light the fact that Sackville had motored in to London from Sir John's country place—quite a long trip—exactly two days before his death, indicating that even if there had been a temporary quarrel be-tween her and Sir John in some former time, which had led him to draft the unsigned codicil, their relations were, at any rate, of the most friendly and affectionate description on the eve of his death. This is not the first time that Lady Sackville has been engaged in litigation concerning the disposition of property. When her brother, Henry, and her sisters sought to prove judi-cially that their father, Lord Sackville, had been duly married to the Franco-Spanish danseuse, Josephine or Pepita Olivares, and that they were, there-fore, legitimate, she, in that cause celebre, sided against them, and strove with all her might and main to prove that her mother had been her father's belle amie, instead of his legal wife, the reason being that she had married her first cousin, Lionel Sackville West, who, owing to the illegitimacy of her brother Henry, had succeeded both to her brother.

The history of the large fortune left by the late Sir John Scott is a very curious one. It originally belonged to the fourth Marquis of Hertford, who, at his death in 1870, bequeathed it to his brother, Sir Richard Wallace. Sir Richard was never acknowledged by his mother's father, the third marquis, having been born when she was living in Paris, during the Napoleonic wars with England, and he was in England, and after the separation had lasted over two years. Sir Richard's father, in fact, was the Count Casimir de Montrond, and if Sir Richard never claimed the style of Lord Richard Seymour, and recognition as Lady Hert-ford's son born in wedlock, and unrepudlated by her husband, it was behis brother, the fourth marquis, the whole story of his mother's frailty would be revealed in court by the other members of the Seymour family, in their endeaver to prevent him from succeeding to the marquisate and en talled estates.

Sir Richard married a French lady a son, who, as a captain of French Culrassiers, greatly distinguished himself in the war with Germany in 1870. Being illegitimate, this son could not inherit the baronetcy bestowed upon Sir Richard by Queen Victoria, in reogenition of his many philanthropes. This, too, served to emphasize the tardy nature of Sir Richard's marriage, with the result that Lady Wallace was subjected to the severest kind of ostracism by English society. Captain Wallace, of the Culrassers, married against his parents' wishes. married against his parents' wishes, and predeceased his father. Sir Richard made a great favorite of his confidential secretary, John Murray Scott, son of an English physician in practice at Boulogne. It is not for me to say here to what extent Scott contributed to the estrangement be-contributed to the estrangement be-tween Captain Wallace and his pa-rents. When Sir Richard Wallace died, it was found that he had bequeathed a mere pittance to his daughter-in-law and to his grandchildren, but had left a very considerable sum of money also that he had refrained from devising to the nation his wonderful art collection, now housed in the National lection, at Hertford House, Manchester Square, London, leaving it instead to having previously intimated own name to the nation. His idea in this was that although England had refused to accord her any social recognition during his lifetime, the nation should be obliged to honor her memory forevermore after her demise.

Lady Wallace survived her husband tor between God and man, by who alone tor between God and man, by who alone for some years, and, in due course, be- tor between God and man, by who alone queathed the art collection to the na-tion, on the understanding that John Scott should be associated in its management, and then left all the re-mainder of her fortune, that is to say, of the fortune that originally belonged to the fourth Marquis of Hertford, in-cluding most of the Hertford family jewels, to John Scott, completely ing her widowed daughter-in-law and her grandchildren.

John Scott entered into the posses sion of his inheritance, and, as a multi-millionaire, not long afterwards re-ceived a baronetcy in his turn, for having "induced" Lady Wallace to bequeath the Hertford and Wallace art treasures to the nation.

Now the Hertford fortune comes to Lady Sackville, the heroine of the gospel, and dwells continually in every principal romance in Sir John Scott's believer as the Spirit of truth, of holilife, and it is she also who will henceforth be able to appear in society, thereby the author of all Christian exlife, and it is she also who will hence-forth be able to appear in society, adorned with all the world-famed jewels worn in turn by the wives of the first, second and third Marquesses of Hertford, some of them being crown jewels bestowed on the second marchioness, who was the favorite of George IV., and which the crown in vain endeavored to recover from her after that monarch's death,

I would add that if Sir John Murray Scott left at his death a considerably larger amount in money than either Sir Richard or Lady Wallace, it was larger amount in money than either Sir Richard or Lady Wallace, it was because he had, after their demise, managed to conclude most advantageous sales of their extensive property in France, including their large mansion in Paris, and their one-time royal chateau and extensive gardens of Bagatelle, on the outskirts of the Bois de Boulogne, celebrated throughout the length and breadth of Europe for its beauty. During the reign of Napoleon III., the fourth Marquis of Hertford, to whom Bagatelle then belonged, used to whom Bagatelle then belonged, used to place the gardens and park at the disposal of the young Prince Imperial, who was able to find more privacy for his games with his playmates there than in the gardens of the Tuileries.

(Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood

JACK IS FREED BY PITTSBURGH JURY

Former Virginian Acquitted of Shooting Wife on Grounds of Insanity.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Winchester, Va., May 16.—James M.
Jack, member of a wealthy Winchester family, who recently shot his wife, Mrs. Rosella Jack, in the head and face, in their home in Pittsburgh, Pa., was ac-quitted there today on the grounds of insanity

Affidavits were presented by his law-yer, Richard Evelyn Byrd, showing Jack to be a paroled patient of a Vir-ginia asylum.

Mrs. Jack is recovering.

Jack shot Patrolman Lewis Legg here some years ago while under ar-Chamber of Commerce Officers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., May 16.—The newlyelected board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce to-day elected the following administrative officials for this year: President, Earnest Williams; vice-president, Walker Pettyjohn; official secretary, M. I. Brown, and treasurer, G. E. Vaughan G. E. Vaughan.

REINACH, Inc.

Misses' Outer Apparel.

Part 3.—God's Purpose.

The eternal purpose of God includes all events; it is holy and wise, and does not deprive men of freedom nor make God the author of sin.

Part 4.—Creation.
For the manifestation of His own For the manifestation of His own glory God created the world and all things therein, whether visible or invisible, and all very good. He made man after His own image; male and female created He them, with immortal souls, endowed with knowledge, righteousness and holiness, having the law of God in their hearts and power law of God in their hearts and power to fulfil it; and yet under a possibili-ty of transgression, being left to the freedom of their own will freedom of their own will.

Part 5.—Sin and the Fall.

Sin is the violation of God's law, either by omission or commission. Our first parents, being tempted by Satan, disobeyed God's command, and so by their own choice fell from their original state of innocence and communion with God, and came under the power of sin, the penalty of which is eternal death. All men, by reason of their relationship to Adam as their representative head and common ancestor, are born with a sinful nature, from which all actual transgressions proceed; and all actual transgressions proceed; and out of this condition no one is able to God, who is rich in mercy, so loved the world that He gave His only be-gotten Son to be the Saviour of sinners. The salvation thus provided is freely this salvation only through faith in Christ, being regenerated by the Holy Spirit. All who die in infancy, and all others who are incapable of exercising choice, are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit, who works when and where and how He pleases. We thus declare that God's electing grace has needed by a grace has needed because the results of the report it was o motion referred to the committee on brief popular statement of belief. This grace has needed because with a multiple control of the report. The modera curision of the report. The modera wn name to the nation. His idea in tude that no man can number, and has stude to accord her any social record.

tor between God and man, by who alone we can come unto the Father. By a life of perfect obedience and by His sacrificial death He satisfied divine justice, made a perfect atonement for sin, and reconciles us to God.

He rose from the dead and ascended into heaven, where He makes continual intercession for us; and He sits at the right hand of God, clothed with honor and power, subduing His people unto Himself, ruling and defending them, and restraining and conquering all His and their enemies. He will come again to receive and reward His people, and to judge the world.

Part 8.—The Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Godhead, applies the redemption purchased by Christ. He persuades and enables men to obey the call of the gospel and dwells continuely in the persuades.

Every one who humbly relies upon Christ alone for salvation and in peniis pardoned and accepted as righteous in God's sight, solely on the ground of the perfect obedience and sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Every one thus pardoned and accepted is adopted into God's fam them through repentance to fellowship with Him

Part 12 .- The Church. We acknowledge one universal church, the same in all ages, and of which Christ is the head. The church which Christ is the head. The church invisible consists of all the redeemed. The church visible is composed of all these throughout the world who profess faith in Jesus Christ, together with their children, and it is the duty of all believers openly to profess their faith by uniting with the church. The church exists to bring to Christ those whom the Father has given Him, and to establish the Redeemer's kingdom. The mission of the church is spiritual, and its work is to witness to the truth of God to the ends of the earth, and to preach the gospel to all men in every preach the gospel to all men in every generation. We believe in the separa-tion of church and state. The scriptural form of church government is by ciders of presbyters, chosen by the members of the church; but we do not regard the form of government of church as essential to its existence. We recognize the validity of the ministry and sacraments of all evangelical churches, and seek the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace. Ministers, olders and depons are required to subelders and deacons are required to sub-scribe to the system of doctrine printed in our standards, but the sole condition for membership In the church is a credible confession of Christ as Saviour

Part 13.—The Sacraments.

There are two sacraments—baptism, which symbolizes the work of the Holy Spirit, and the Lord's Supper, which symbolizes the sacrificial death of Christ. Sprinkling or pouring is the scriptural mode of baptism, but the mode is not essential to the validity of the sacrament. Children of believers, before reaching the age of personal accountability, are to be baptized on the faith of their parents, who in the sacramental act enter into covenant relations with God. We invite to the Lord's table all who love Him in sincerity and truth and who are in good and regular standing in evangelical churches.

Part 14.—Death and Resurrection. Part 13 .- The Sacraments.

Part 14.—Death and Resurrection.
The souls of believers are at their death made perfect in holiness, and do immediately pass into glory, and their bodies, being still united to Christ, do rest in the grave till the resurrection. At the resurrection, believers being raised up in glory, snall be openly acknowledged and acquitted in the day of judgment and made perfectly blessed in the full enjoyment of God to all eternity, but the wicked shall go away into everlasting numbers.

into everlasting punishment.

Part 15.—The Final State.

There are but two states of future existence—heaven, the home of the redeemed, and hell, the abode of the final-

Engagement Rings

Exquisite settings in the Princess

It is a pleasure to show our goods. SCHWARZSCHILD BROS, Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

New Testaments. It is the revelation of God's will for man and of man's duty to God, and is the only infallible and authoritative rule of faith and life.

Part 3.—God's Purpose.

The eternal purpose of God includes

Propose of God includes of God i in all ages we toil and pray for the speedy coming of the day when our glorious Lord shall see the travail of His soul and shall be satisfied.

is soul and shall be satisfied.

(Signed),

M. F. ANSEL,

EUGENE C. CALDWELL,

WILLIAM RAY DOBYNS,

JAS. LEWIS HOWE,

A. C. HOWSEE,

J. S. LYONS,

OSCAR NEWTON,

H. E. RAVENEL,

GEORGE SUMMEY. GEORGE SUMMEY, JAMES I. VANCE.

Explanatory Note.

Prefacing the text of the report was the following explanatory note:

Explanatory note.—Inasmuch as there is some difference of opinion concern-ing the status and use of any report which it may make, this committee destand that the assembly instructed it to provide a statement of doctrine which shall be a substitute for or in addition, or in amendment, to any of the documents contained in the constitution of the church, or of any part It respectfully suggests that in the event the assembly approves this re-port, the statement submitted shall be referred to the executive committee of publication to be printed and cirulated as may be deemed best.

Two Do Not Sign.

Dr. Vance announced also that two members of the ad interim committee, Rev. R. A. Webb, D. D., of Louisville, Ky, and Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., of Columbia, S. C., had not signed the report because of the opinion held by each that this report does not answer that they should be holy and without blame before Him in love. Those who come to years of discretion receive this salvation only through faith in Christ, being regenerated by the Holy Spirit. All who die in Infancy, and all others who are incapable of exercising the reading of the report it was on the reading of reference was made without any dis-cussion of the report. The modera-tor then announced that the consideration of this report should be made the special order for 10 o'clock Tues-day morning next.

A most pleasant pastime-KO-

Tragle's

Ladies' Russian Calf Rubber Sole Oxfords, $2.50 to $4.00. Men's Russian Calf Rubber Sole Oxfords, $3.50 to $5.00.

Northwest Corner Third and Broad

DETROIT GAS RANGES. ALASKA REFRIGERATORS. OLD HICKORY FURNITURE SOLD ONLY BY

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed Freshness." Tel. Mad. 630.

Specialists in Apparel for Women.

Aug Players—the finest made, at makers' prices.

ville estates. Consequently, if her brother and sisters had won their case Mosby & Co. and proved that their mother had been lawfully married, she herself would have ceased to be a peeress of the realm, and her husband would have been obliged to surrender the celebrated Knole Park estate, in Kent, to many years after she had borne him a son, who, as a captain of French

107 E. BROAD STREET

Same Quality Every Day.

MILLINERY-Women's and

PURITY ICE CREAM Mongoe 1861. ...